

I would like to protest the conversion of fm translators to the LPFM. I understand this would keep certain stations from being broadcast in communities that need these programs. As a K-LOVE listener in Oklahoma, I know what a positive impact this radio station has on the lives of many nationwide.